

Parents: Let Your Children Tell You Why THE GREAT MAJESTIC Is Known As "The Range With A Reputation"

These little folks give you the facts. Mother's opinion you know, true and reliable. The Majestic is built in many styles and sizes but only one quality—malleable and charcoal iron. Malleable iron does not break or crack. Charcoal iron does not rust easily. It resists rust 300 per cent greater than steel. The use of these two materials permits tight riveting, making the Majestic durable. The Majestic has a malleable iron front extending over the flues from top to bottom making the Majestic indestructible where other ranges are weakest. One piece charcoal iron body, rounded corners, no corner plates necessary, riveted together tightly, lined with pure abestos board, all of which attains to the maximum in Heat Retaining, Fuel Saving Qualities, Service and Staying qualities, large air tight oven which bakes quickly, uniformly and evenly, browns bread top, bottom and sides, not necessary to turn the baking, 15 gallon all copper reservoir which boils the water. The Majestic has won every gold medal at every important exhibit for nearly 25 years. Surely there's a reason for this. Ask your neighbor. Come in this week and see for yourself during the demonstration.

And remember, the Free Present, $8 worth of ware will positively not be given with this range after next Saturday.

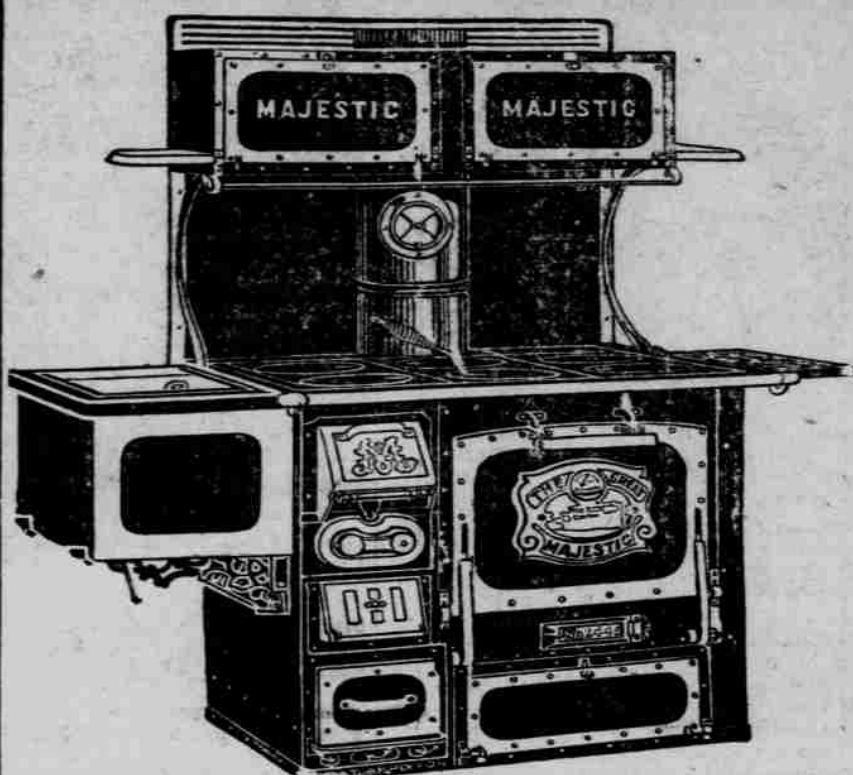

The Majestic range is extra large and it is a nice looking range. I like the Majestic because it is handy and has an extra good oven. It has a large and very neat warming oven which keeps things clean and warm. It has a reservoir which heats lots of water.
Blanch Collins.

The Majestic is a pretty stove and every body likes it. It bakes and cooks with just a little fuel and is cheap for the good stove that it is.
John Basala.

The Majestic is of excellent quality, wears a long time, the price is right and in every way is the most satisfactory and modern of any range.
Edith Sprague.

I like the Majestic because all the good things I have ever eaten were cooked on my grandma's Majestic range. My grandma said that she would never have a range that would bake bread and roast chicken like her Majestic and so I will say three cheers for the Majestic.
Grace Wollner.

Because it has a good oven and bakes good. It is the best range ever known for baking. It has a thermometer to tell how hot the oven is. It draws good and has a good reservoir for heating water. It has an ash pan that makes it easy to empty the ashes. It has a good fire box and a nice large warming oven to keep things warm and clean.
Wayne Gunckel.

The Majestic has a reputation because it cooks, bakes and heats water better than any other. It is of high quality and gives satisfaction always. It saves fuel and lasts longer than any other. The Majestic is made of better material and holds fire longer and does not cause much trouble because it is so convenient to handle.
Philip Porter.

Because it is so convenient. It saves a thousand steps a day to the women who use it and it is neat and clean and bakes best and saves fuel.
Joe Sellers.

Because it saves fuel and heats and bakes very rapidly and better than any other range. It is very highly praised by all who use it.
Ruth Bingham.

The Majestic is known by its reputation. It has proved itself in many homes. Being as good or even better than recommended by dealers. The name Majestic stands for best material and workmanship and good service.
Dalice Poffenberger.

Because it well built, easily kept clean, economical, fuel saver, heats water rapidly with little fuel and a perfect baker. The water heater cannot be excelled. I know because mamma had a Majestic range.
William Wall.

On account of lack of space we cannot print all the answers as more than a hundred children handed in answers and received souvenirs.

BENTON SPEAKS IN TREGO COUNTY

Last Friday Otis L. Benton accompanied by his sister Mrs. Lucia Case of Topeka arrived in Wa-Keeney early in the morning coming by auto from Hill City. They were taken to the I. T. Purcell home where they were entertained during their stay.

At 10 o'clock accompanied by a number of county officers they went to Ogallah where Mrs. Case and Mr. Benton made excellent political addresses. Rev. W. R. Woodward also made a good talk.

In the afternoon accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hardman, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Benson and Mrs. H. S. Givler, Mr. and Mrs. Pete DeBoer and Rev.

W. R. Woodward the party went to Collyer. Mrs. Case, Mr. Benton and each of the Republican candidates who are running for office made addresses to a large and attentive audience. Rev. Woodward also made a splendid short address in the interest of the Republican party heartily endorsing Hughes, Capper and Benton.

The day closed by a meeting at the court house in the evening where Mrs. Case and Mr. Benton again addressed a good sized audience. Both are excellent speakers and held the attention of their hearers to the end.

Benton is making a whirlwind campaign throughout the district and is meeting large and enthusiastic crowds where ever he goes. There is no doubt about his election as he is conceded to be the best man for the place in the entire Sixth. He is deserving of the vote of every thinking man and woman who believe in clean politics and that a Republican congress is necessary for the best interests of the Republican party should Charles Evans Hughes be the next president of the United States. Don't fail to vote for Otis L. Benton the 7th on next November.

REGARDING H. F. KLINE'S CANDIDACY

Our readers well remember that in a recent issue we asked for Mr. Kline to make it clear where he stood in the campaign which is rapidly coming to a close only being a little over a month off. We got no reply which was not a surprise to us, but to put our readers, and the voters in the Republican party in this county in the clear as to why he does not head the ticket as printed in the World and receive its support we wish to say the reason is this—he is not a Republican. This paper is, and will not stand for any one on the ticket who dodges the issue and refuses to let any one know where he stands. Mr. Kline cannot call himself a Republican for he does not follow out the policies. He is willing enough to ask Republican support but gives nothing in return which is so clearly demonstrated in the fact that only a month or two before election when a newspaper can do so much for the candidates of the party it represents he sold out to a Democrat who has been "bifling" Capper and Hughes in its editorials ever since.

Now, if he were a true Republican do our readers think for a moment he would have played such a trick, they do not think so, and had he wished to sell which was unquestionably his right, he could have waited until after the election which was only a few weeks off and used his paper in the interest of the Republicans for national, state and county, but his intention was to hurt Republican interests as much as possible and then asks their support.

Right here is a place for our readers to stop and reflect on this matter. Further, last Friday when Otis L. Benton was here every county officers who are seeking re-election and those seeking election for the first time accompanied the Benton party to Collyer and all made neat little speeches in behalf of Republican interests but Mr. Kline asking for the highest office within the gift of the people of the county chose to ignore Mr. Benton and refused to accompany the party to Collyer. Does not look much like he is tearing his shirt for Republicans this year, does it? Why Republicans think it necessary to vote for such a man is beyond us and this paper refuses to support him.

We have got some good warm Democratic friends and we admire them for the stand they take for they do so for the sake of a principle, but a man who has no politics and sidesteps and flops first to one side then the other just for the sake of votes is not deserving of the support of either party. Let him declare himself openly like other candidates do. If Kline is a Democrat his name should head their ticket we know he is not a Republican and has by his own acts no right to ask for Republican support.

JUST BEFORE ELECTION

Tune, "Just Before the Battle Mother."

Just before election, voter, Think of Benton, brave and true, And when you cast your ballot, voter, Vote for Benton, he will do.

In Congress he will be a winner, Always ready, always there; And so we will send him this November.

'Cause he'll treat the people square.

Chorus

Farewell, Connelly, you will never Go to congress, no, no, no!

For well we know that in November, You will rest beneath the snow.

Down in congress good old Benton

Will always do his level best To give the people satisfaction And the Democrats no rest. Maine has shown us what to look for, Hughes will win beyond a doubt; March the fourth, as sure as fate, sir, Woodrow Wilson will step out,

Chorus

Hark, we hear the bugle, sounding, Telling us elections o'er, Telling us that Johnnie Connelly Can't go back for two years more, And the news does not surprise us, For we knew it would come true.

See them sweeping on to victory, Charles E. Hughes and Benton, too.

Chorus

Farewell, Connelly, you will never Go to congress, no, no, no! For well we know that in November Up Salt River you will go.
